Wellington divers excel at 2008 Pacific Schools Games

Divers from the Wellington High Performance Aquatics (WHPA) squads competed with flying colours at the 2008 Pacific Schools Games in Canberra.

The event, which closed on the weekend, included events in diving, swimming, track and field, basketball and hockey. Wellington diving was represented by a strong team which put in a stellar performance. The results of the six-diver team were:

Lexi Mills – Gold and Silver
Ollie Armstrong Scott – 2 x Gold
Fiona Cameron – Gold and Bronze
Kate Irving – Bronze
Fiona Cameron – Bronze
Tom Green – 2 x 4th
Emma O'Connor – 7th

These results prepare the divers for the upcoming New Zealand National Championships being held in Auckland 12-13 December.

WHPA provides training and experience for its members with the aim of achieving at an elite international level. WHPA divers, Gabe Armstrong Scott and Alice Wylie van Eerd are focusing on qualifying for the Australian Open in late February 2009.
